

2008 BaySail Science Education Intern Positions (2)

What is BaySail?

BaySail is a private, nonprofit organization based in Bay City, Michigan. We offer unforgettable environmental education and freshwater ecology programs for students aboard the schooners Appledore IV and Appledore V. Our programs include ½ day experiences for K-12 school groups, and week-long voyages for high school students. Much of our programming takes place in the Bay City area, but some programs are delivered in other Michigan port cities and on the open lake.

Internships:

2 Internship positions are available during the 2008 season. The primary duties will involve teaching a science based program to K-12 students on day trips: locally and in other ports 1-2 hours away. Up to one week living aboard ship will be required while the ship is in other ports. In addition, suitably qualified candidates will assist in delivering an extended freshwater ecology program to high school students during overnight voyages on Lake Huron. In addition to shipboard duties, all interns will assist with ship logistics, and voyage coordination.

As an Intern, you:

- Must be willing to work outdoors in all weather conditions.
- Must be willing to live aboard ship for up to 1 week.
- Must be positive and enthusiastic.
- Must be self-motivated and able to organize several other program volunteers.
- Must enjoy working with students.
- Must already possess a good working knowledge of environmental science topics and be willing to learn new information as it relates to BaySail's programs.
- Must be willing to perform basic sailing duties aboard Appledore when needed.
- Must be in good general physical condition and be able to swim.
- Must have reliable transportation.
- Must be willing to travel, including sailing long distances.

Particulars:

- Term: April 23 - June 15
- Approximately 25 hours per week will be required.
- There is a stipend of $250.
- You will be subject to a background check due to your close contact with students.
